

108334 Selections of Translated World Literature (3 CHs) ( P 108381)

This course focuses on the translation of a selected variety of literary works translated by professionals and published by well-known publishers. It is a kind of literary translation that is especially oriented to training students in translating highly-ranked literature written by world prominent authors. Students are to be acquainted with the literary style and characterizing linguistic features of a number of masterpieces carefully selected for the challenging job of their translation.