

- A study of representative works of world literature from Antiquity, the Middle Ages, and the Renaissance.
- Consideration of the literary, cultural, and human significance of selected great works of the Western and non-Western literary traditions.

General Learning Outcomes:

1. Students should be able to read and understand the literary texts and their contexts.
2. They should be able to translate literary texts from and into mother tongue.
3. They must master varied literary terms and expressions.
4. They should be prepared to understand and relate national and international cultural and literary heritage.