

Bachelor Degree in Physical Therapy

Program Learning Outcome (PLOs):

Program Learning Outcomes describe what students are expected to know and be able to do by the time of graduation. These relate to the knowledge, skills, and behaviours that students acquire as they progress through the program. A graduate of the (Physical Therapy) program will demonstrate:		Descriptors*
		K	S	C
1.	Knowledge in Basic medical sciences to understand physiotherapy-related cases.	K
2.	The ability to conduct the appropriate assessment and develop an appropriate treatment plan for the patient's condition		S
3.	Apply appropriate clinical judgment taking into account preventive aspects and practice therapeutics evidence-based treatment.			C
4.	Adherence to the rules of ethics for medical professions in issuing therapeutic judgments			C
5.	Utilize critical thinking skills as a method in solving patients problems related to the physical therapy.			C
6.	Engage in team-based work and act responsibly in personal and professional situations		S
7.	Apply general safety measures when dealing with patients			C

*Descriptors according to the national qualifications framework (K: knowledge, S: skill, C: Competency)